

Please do not supercede the Indiana law governing telemarketing. This law has worked very effectively. No longer do I have to deal with annoying telemarketing calls while eating dinner or come home to several hangups on my answering machine from attempted telemarketing calls. Please keep our law as is to maintain our peace and sanity. Thank you.